

Ryan Short, PT is a co-founder of Advance Physical Therapy. Ryan was born and raised in the Mississippi Delta. He attended high school at Bayou Academy where he graduated in 1993. After high school, Ryan attended Millsaps College and Delta State University. Ryan attended the University of Mississippi Medical Center where he received his Bachelor of Science in Physical Therapy in 1999.

Ryan enjoys challenging himself with an eager desire to continuously learn and grow both personally and professionally. He continued with post-education studying McKenzie spinal treatments. He has been practicing physical therapy for 27 years. Ryan practices in Cleveland and Ruleville.

Ryan is husband to his wife Heather Dunning Short and father to his daughter Emma and sons Matthew and Anderson. In his spare time he enjoys watching and coaching sports, snow and water skiing, and spending time with his family. Ryan has coached Pee Wee Football at Bayou Academy for 15 years.

After graduation, Ryan along with David Crowe founded Advance Physical Therapy in 2003 in Cleveland, MS. In 2014, the pair extended their practice by offering outpatient therapy with the North Sunflower Medical Center in Ruleville, MS. They have been committed and driven to make a positive impact in the world of physical rehabilitation.
